

Take a swim

Museum of Archipelago

Have you always wanted to know what the historical fisher's life looked like?

Maybe some of your ancestors were fishermen?

Go to the Archipelago museum and discover original nets, ropes and boats. And after this exciting time travel you can enjoy the nature that surrounds the museum. While relaxing in the sun, give your best to knot a traditional monkey's fist. Now you feel like a real fisherman!

Friends for life

Learn new things